Day By Day Itinerary

Day 01 (21/05): Bangalore to Mysore

Morning by surface travel to Mysore.

Upon arrival in Mysore, transfer to hotel.

Mysore city is the cultural capital of Karnataka. Nestling at the base of the scenic Chamundi Hills in South India, Mysore retains a quaint old-world charm that enchants tourists. It is home to 17 palaces, although no longer a princely state, it retains its old charm and many buildings are adorned with domes, turrets and impressive archways. The city is a legacy of the famous warrior king Tipu Sultan, known for his victories over the British Army. Mysore is famous for the annual 10-day Dussehra festival which draws tourists from all over the country and abroad.

Evening is at leisure.

Stay overnight at hotel.

Day 02 (22/05): In Mysore

After your breakfast, proceed for sightseeing of Mysore city visiting Mysore Palace, Chamundeswari Temple (Chamundi Hills), Sri Jayachamarajendra Art Gallery and Devraja Market.

Mysore Palace is one of the largest and most spectacular palaces in the country. It is also one of the most visited monuments in India. The palace was initially built by the Wodeyar kings in the 14th century. Unfortunately, the palace got burnt down in 1897 during a royal wedding. The current palace construction was commissioned in 1897 and was completed by 1912. The Palace was the residence of the Wodeyar Maharaja's of the Mysore state. It is the venue for the famous Mysore Dasara Festival, during which leading artists perform on a stage set up in the palace grounds. On the tenth day of the festival Vijaya Dashami, a parade with caparisoned elephants and other floats originate from the palace grounds. The palace houses a collection of exquisite carvings and works of art from all over the world.

The Chamundi Hills on the outskirts of Mysore city is another famous landmark of the city. On the top of the hill is the Chamundeshwari Temple that dates back to the 11th century. The temple is adorned with various epitomes of Nandi. The colossal Nandi is 15 feet wide and 24 feet long and was made during the reign of Dodda Devaraja. It also has a seven floor 'gopuram'. The idol of the Goddess is made of gold and the entrance with shining silver. The dumbfounding construction appeals to the visitors' aesthetic senses.

The Sri Jayachamarajendra Art Gallery is considered as one of the best art galleries in South India because of its exceptional collection of paintings and artifacts that belongs to the Wodeyars of Mysore. The Jagan Mohan Palace was constructed in 1861 the king of Mysore, Krishnaraja Wodeyar III as an alternate residence for the royal family.

Devraja Market is an excellent example of a colourful, noisy, and vibrant traditional Indian market. The northern side of the market is filled with stalls selling fruits and the southern portion specializes in selling vegetables.

Stay overnight at hotel.

Day 03 (23/05): Mysore to Hassan – By surface / 130 kms / approx 03 hrs

Morning by surface travel to Hassan. Enroute visit Shravanabelagola.

Shravanabelagola is a renowned Jain pilgrimage site in Karnataka, famous for its colossal 57-foot monolithic statue of Lord Bahubali. Located atop Vindhyagiri Hill, it attracts devotees and tourists alike. The site offers spiritual serenity, historic temples, and panoramic views, reflecting Jain heritage and ancient Indian sculptural excellence.

Later continue your drive to Hassan.

Hassan, a serene town in Karnataka, is renowned for its rich historical and cultural significance. It serves as a convenient base to explore the exquisite Hoysala architectural masterpieces at Belur and Halebidu, known for their intricate stone carvings and temple art. The town itself is named after the goddess Hasanamba, whose temple draws devotees during the annual festival.

Day 05 (25/05): Hassan to Hampi (330 km / 7 hrs)

Morning by surface travel to Hampi.

Upon arrival in Hospet, transfer to hotel.

If dreams were made out of stone, it would be Hampi. Hampi has been classified as a World Heritage Centre and is one of the major tourist destinations in India. Hampi, the seat of the famed Vijayanagara Empire was the capital of the largest empire in post-moghul India, covering several states. The Vijayanagara Empire stretched over at least three states -Karnataka, Maharashtra, and Andhra Pradesh. Although in ruins today, this capital city once boasted riches known far beyond the shores of India. The ruins of Hampi of the 14th Century lies scattered in about 26 sq. km area, amidst giant boulders and vegetation. The splendid remains of palaces and gateways of the broken city tell a tale of man's infinite talent and power of creativity together with his capacity for senseless destruction. A visit to Hampi is a sojourn into the past. Most of the important structures and ruins are located in two areas, which are generally referred to as the Royal Centre and the Sacred Centre.

Evening climb Hemakuta Hill or Matanga Hill in Hampi to witness breathtaking panoramic views of the ancient ruins and rugged, boulder-strewn landscape. These vantage points offer a serene and awe-inspiring setting, especially at sunset, when the golden light casts a magical glow over temples, paddy fields, and the Tungabhadra River.

Stay overnight at hotel.

Day 06 (26/05): In Hampi (UNESCO World Heritage Site)

Spend the day exploring the captivating ruins of Hampi, a UNESCO World Heritage Site that showcases the grandeur of the Vijayanagara Empire. Begin with the sacred Virupaksha Temple, still active and steeped in history, followed by a visit to the iconic Vittala Temple, famed for its stone chariot and musical pillars. Wander through the Royal Enclosure, featuring the Mahanavami Dibba, Queen's Bath, and intricately designed Elephant Stables. In the afternoon, soak in the architectural beauty and serene atmosphere as you stroll through ancient corridors and courtyards. End your day with a tranquil coracle ride on the Tungabhadra River, surrounded by Hampi's dramatic boulder-strewn landscape.

Stay overnight at hotel.

Day 07 (27/05): Hampi to Badami (140 km / 3.5 hrs)

Morning by surface travel to Badami. Enroute visit Aihole.

Aihole is a historical place and is known as the birthplace of Hindu stone architecture. It is a town in the Bagalkot district in Karnataka, located on the west side of Badami and has more than 125 temples in all. It is a very famous tourist spot. Aihole is situated to the east of Pattadakal along the Malaprabha river. Distinctive characteristics which are unparalleled to early Western Chalukyan architecture include mortarless fabrication with stress on length and not on width or height.

Upon arrival in Hospet, transfer to hotel. Evening is at leisure.

Stay overnight at hotel.

Day 08 (28/05): Badami to Goa (240 km / 5-6 hrs)
